

10mm acid- etched frosted glass balustrade supplier- safety railing fence frosted glass manufacturer

Glass frosting is a method of treating the surface of a glass with a solution of glass frosting powder or other chemical materials. Frosting is one of the methods of deep processing of glass, which can increase the added value of glass and thus increase the value of glass products.

Frosted glass, as the artistic glass of the enamel, adds a sense of beauty to the space decoration and adds to the artglass. Frosted glass is widely used in the decoration of large outdoor landscaping in homes, hotels, bars, KTVs and cafes in the background wall, ceiling, dining table, screen, porch, partition, floor, stairs, doors and windows, glass coffee table, etc. Frosted glass organically combines the interior and exterior landscapes with art deco, greatly improving the space decoration grade.

Frosted glass other application areas

Art field.

Decoration field.

Packaging glass field.

Science and technology field.

Characteristic of 10mm acid etched tempered glass

1. Uniformly smooth and silky surface, translucent and matte in appearance.
2. High light transmittance ensures maximum light, still maintaining privacy.

Acid-etched frosted glass package

